

Keep The Music Going Name Games For Young Children

It's time to have some fun with our little ones. Young children love to hear their name in a song or a rhyme. Here are some fun games, songs, and rhymes to share with your favorite children.

Sitting in the Ring

Someone is sitting in the ring, ring, ring.

(Susie) is sitting in the ring, ring, ring.

Now move from your seat, and point to someone sweet,

And bring them to the center of the ring, ring, ring.

"Hello (child's name) how are you? Who is sitting next to you?"

The child passes the toy to next child. Child says their name. Repeat song until everyone has had a turn.

The Farmer in the Dell (adaptation)

(Susie's) in the house

(Susie's) in the house

Hi, Ho, the derry-o

(Susie's) in the house

Susie takes a horse, (Stuffed animal)

Susie takes a horse,

Hi, Ho, the derry-o

Susie takes a horse

-Add as many toys as you like in a basket and let your child pick and name them.

Then sing about them. Susie takes a ball, Susie takes a block, etc.

Color song: Someone's Wearing

Billy's wearing red today, red today, red today.

Billy's wearing red today, all day long.
